On behalf of Denmon & Denmon Law, P.A., we highly recommend Critical Information Services, Inc. They provide stellar subpoena and private investigation services in a prompt manner.

We began using the services of CIR after experiencing frustration with other subpoena and P.I. companies that always had an excuse for non-completion or delay in services. From the onset, Jeff Barker and his team have provided us with the best service at an affordable rate.

If you are seeking professional, courteous team that will get the job done, choose CIR. They will complete the task and not let you down!
